

ANSWER KEY

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

Match columns A and B to form sentences.

A

It's a squid...

The computer...

The hospital...

The girl...

We have been to Berlin,...

B

...who is looking at you is my sister.

...where I was born is in Alicante.

...which I would like isn't very expensive.

...where we left knitted sausages.

...which is 8 metres long.

Write your sentences here:

1. It's a squid which is 8 metres long.
2. The computer which I would like isn't very expensive.
3. The hospital where I was born is in Alicante.
4. The girl who is looking at you is my sister.
5. We have been to Berlin, where we left knitted sausages.

Complete the text with who, where or which.

AS GOOD AS NEW!

Last week I was at the recycling centre (1) where we take all our paper and glass and I saw an old chair. It looked just like the one (2) which my Granny used to have. I asked the man (3) who works there if I could have it. He said the people (4) who left it didn't need it anymore, so I should take it. I took it home and got out the tools (5) which I got for my birthday. It was dirty and there were places (6) where it was a bit broken. I asked my neighbour (7) who is good at mending things for some help, and he told me what to do. Now it's fixed, it's as good as new! I'm going to put it on the balcony (8) where Granny likes to sit in the sun!

Complete the sentences using relative pronouns.

- a) Alexander Graham Bell was the man who invented the telephone.
- b) There are many people who are overweight.
- c) This is the animal which John saw last week.
- d) That is the school where Andrew works.
- e) Mary, who was eighteen yesterday, is one of my best friends.
- f) The table, which you broke yesterday, was bought by my grandmother.
- g) An architect is someone who designs buildings.